DEFINITIONS

1. The term "Documents" shall have the broadest possible meaning under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and shall include any handwritten, typed, photographed, computerized, electronic, audio, video, or other graphical matter, regardless of how it is printed, stored or reproduced, in your possession, custody, or control, or known by you to exist. Responsive Documents shall exclude any privileged items provided that a privilege log is provided. Any Documents with any marks or notations, including but not limited to initials, routing instructions, date stamps, and any comments, making or notation of any character, is to be considered a separate document. In addition, for any Document consisting of electronically stored information, each electronically stored version of that Document and all electronically stored information relating to that Document shall be considered a separate document.

2. "Relating to" shall mean directly or indirectly mentioning or describing, pertaining to, being connected with, reflecting upon, or having any logical or factual connection with a stated subject matter.
